

	Rainbowfish will be the charity set up in support of Cian to help him overcome his cancer and the resulting long term mobility issues he now faces. They will also be campaigning to ensure adequate resources are spent on research to find effective treatments and cures for childhood cancers that affect the Central Nervous System (with an initial focus on AT/RT). They will aim to provide other families in the same situation with information in easy to understand terms, and create a network of advice and support.
	Latch has provided Cian's family with accommodation at the hospital so that they are able to stay close to Cian, and tickets for swimming at the hospital pool for Cian's siblings. They have also provided them with access to social workers, psychologists and other experts who help in the family coming to terms and preparing for the future.
	CLIC Sargent have also provided help to the family in terms of support and advice.
	Dreams & Wishes provide special experiences for seriously ill children. They were responsible for some of the VIP visits that Cian received over Christmas and also pay for regular entertainment to the ward. They have provided Cian with his own ipad
	Noah's Ark is the hospital that is currently looking after Cian and providing him with exceptional medical care. They also supply resources to ensure that children are provided with sufficient stimulation and entertainment during their stays.
	Kids Cancer Charity provide the Case family with access to a play therapist who visit Cian's siblings. This play therapist can assess and assist in the emotional well-being to Cian's brother and sister.
	Velindre is the specialist cancer centre based in Whitchurch, Cardiff, where Cian is received his treatment.
	Newlife helped in the funding of Cian's specialist car seat.
